

LESSON 4: HOW IT WENT WRONG

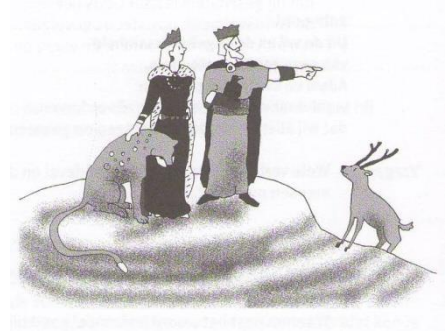

Man: a unique creature

Plants and animals were created _____

Man was created _____

Reason: _____

Man's position

Not God's fault

So: The origin of our fallen nature _____

For God _____

Bible Study: Genesis 3:1-13

1. What's very wrong with the question the serpent asked? _____

2. What do you think this question was trying to do? _____

3. In her response, the woman is not completely truthful. What phrase in her answer is not correct?
(check back to Genesis 2:17) _____
4. Does the woman's response make God's prohibition sound better or worse? _____
5. The serpent tells two lies in response to the woman's response. Which? _____

6. What should the man, the woman's husband, have done? _____

7. Which three things make clear that things had now changed? _____

The Plunge into Sin (discussion)

1. What, at bottom, is the question the woman and the man faced? _____

2. What, at bottom, is sin about? At bottom, sin is about _____

Not a myth

Many religions regard _____

The Plunge into Sin was _____

Adam and Eve _____

They were _____

The tree _____

The snake _____

The disappointment of God

God had created us humans _____

We were to _____ and thus _____ and _____

But we went and did _____ and we _____

Small wonder _____. That's why He placed us _____

At bottom, _____

And by nature we are _____, wanting to be _____.

If we are left to ourselves, _____
_____ (see Genesis 6:5).

Totally corrupt

We are so self-centred that of ourselves _____

And if God has changed you, you are, in reality, no longer totally corrupt, but already have a small beginning of obedience!