 Name: _____

LESSON 06: THE TRINITY (2)

Memory work

33. Q. Why is He called God's only-begotten Son, since we also are children of God?
A. Because Christ alone is the eternal, natural Son of God.
We, however, are children of God by adoption, through grace, for Christ's sake.

Homework

Sometimes people assume things are related to each other because they look a little similar and occur in a similar context. This happens at times with the Trinity, the fact that there are three church offices in the Old Testament (prophet, priest, king) and three church offices in the New Testament (minister, elder, deacon). In a short essay of at least 3 paragraphs, explain what you think of this. If you think there is a connection, argue which person of the Trinity connects with which OT office. and which NT office. If you think there is no connection, argue why you think the connection is incorrect.

Name: _____