Review Questions

We've considered four approaches to defending the existence of God: philosophical, presuppositional, evidential (scientific), and fideism (faith).

1.(4) Which of these approaches is the least likely to succeed in engaging someone who does not believe that God exists? _____ because _____

2.(3) What is the difference between atheism and agnosticism?

3.(3) When it comes to "reality" (the way the world is) the Roman Catholic Church takes a dualist approach. What does that mean: a dualist view of reality? (Hint: it's about "natural" and "spiritual").
