Review Questions

1.(2) Complete the following sentence: To confess your _____ is to say _____ what _____ says.

2.(2) The structure of our creeds is determined by something Christ commanded the church to do. What was that command?

_____

_____

3.(2) How come the creed (confession) has grown over time to the length of the Apostles' Creed?

_____

_____

4.(1) Can we understand how God can be Three and yet One at the same time? _____

5.(2) Last time we discussed two heresies on the trinity: subordinationism and modalism. Write the words "subordinationism" and "modalism" with the correct definitions (read carefully!)

_____ : the Father is more important than the Son and the Spirit, and the Father and the Son are more important than the Spirit.

_____ : God reveals himself in different functions, but is only one Person. God is like a man who is a father, truck-driver, and elder, but of course is still just one person.

6.(1) True or false? The Apostles' Creed was written by the apostles, each contributing an article. _____
