

LESSON 28 – Two Ways To Live (3)

Something to learn

(First video: What's wrong with this world?)

Express yourself _____.

- E.g. “What makes us so self-absorbed?”
- You might be a Christian, but you too, by nature, will hate God and your neighbour (= love yourself above all others)

You can use words _____

- Self-absorbed became self-interest and then: “It’s more than self-interest, it’s self-government”

(Second video: It's all about living a good life)

Don't tell your story _____

- The topic of Jesus' cross came up early
- But it wasn't until the 'chuck himself in front of a bus to save a kid's life' that the right moment had come for the story.

Handling common questions

In formulating a response to a question, consider:

Does it _____?

Is it truthful? Is it loving?

Does it _____?

Lead back to: is Christ who He says He is?

Does it _____?

Don't just answer, ask if there's more.

Is it _____?

Try to cast your response in a way that is acceptable to the other, without doing injustice to the Gospel.

5 possibilities

The Two Ways To Live approach naturally ends with the question for a response.

As the chart shows, the following responses exist:

- Definite No: _____
- Definite Yes: _____
- Yes, but not yet: _____
- On the fence: _____
- Already Christian: _____
