

LESSON 13: CREATION (2)

Creation: when and how long?

The appearance of all things around us as understood by the theory of evolution _____

Some people still feel it is possible to be an evolutionist and a Bible-believing Christian at the same time.

The Bible is clear _____

The Bible is not completely clear _____

The genealogy in Genesis 5 is shorter than the one in Luke 3. (Compare Gen 5:24; 1 Chron 1:18, Luke 3:35). This suggests that it might be wrong to simply do the math and say: creation was about 6000 years BC. Also “to become the father of” could mean “to become the great-great grandfather of” (e.g. Matthew 1:8 compared with 1Chron. 3:10-12)

However, the suggestion that the earth has existed for millions or billions of years without humans on it, is _____

Mind you, _____

How old?

God created all things with age. So _____

Richard Dawkins figures if He did, God is a deceiver. But God is not a deceiver if He told us He did.

A history that never happened

Moments of divine creation

God created _____

God will create _____

One might consider _____

Did God create:

Faith in science?

Science and Revelation.

- Science is _____
 - We are creatures, limited in our abilities
 - We are sinful, skewed in our thoughts
- Revelation is _____
 - God is creator, all-knowing
 - God is perfect, all-good
- Believing is _____
 - We need _____ to understand God's revelation
 - We do well to be _____
