LESSON 06: GOSPEL CALL - 2

Bible Study: 2 Corinthians 5:18-21

1. What did God give to Paul and others? _____
2. Through whom does God reconcile the world to Himself? _____
3. What is this reconciliation? _____

_____

4. What are Paul and others? _____
5. When Paul and others speak, who is really speaking? _____
6. What does this have to say about our attitude towards those speaking? _____

_____

7. Circle the sentence below that describes the message of Paul and others
   a. You have been forgiven by God!
   b. Seek the forgiveness of God!
   c. You have not been forgiven by God!

Presentation of the Gospel – notes from discussion with the 3 video clips

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

Confession Study: Canons of Dort III/IV.3-8

1. Circle the correct statement:
   a. Man is both willing and able to return to God from his fallen state
   b. Man is willing but unable to return to God from his fallen state.
   c. Man is unwilling though able to return to God from his fallen state.
   d. Man is both unwilling and unable to return to God from his fallen state.
2. Man has a sense of right and wrong, the so-called "light of nature". How does man use this? _____

_____

_____

3. What does the law do to man? _____

4. What does the law not do? _____

5. What is needed? _____

6. Why do some get to hear the gospel and others not? _____

7. Does God mean it when He calls all people to faith and promises eternal life? _____

Space for further notes

Comparisons (time permitting)

In our churches, only ministers are allowed to write and present sermons. Elders may present them, but not write them. Does make sense to you? _____ Why (not)? _____

Students of theology and candidates (e.g. Cand. Kevin Star right now) do not "preach" but "speak an edifying word". What is the difference? _____

What are the differences between an essay for YPS and a sermon? _____

Women may not be preachers. May they teach catechism? _____ because _____

Is catechism instruction a form of preaching? _____